Slept on Our Rights.

Last Spring when Clay City was so damaged by the high water, the Times called attention to the railroad fills at the east bridge and pointed out these fills as the probable cause of the town being so flooded. It does seem that the closeness of the fills to the channel of the river on both sides must certainly have had something to do with the flooding of the upper town. Paint Lick, Garrard county was under similar conditions and citizens of that town, as previously reported in these columns, sued the L. & N. railroad for an aggregate of $40,000.00. One of these suits was tried last week in which one of the property owners of the town sought to recover $2,000.00 damages for the flood, and he gained the suit and was awarded damages for every cent he asked.

Had Clay City people who were so damaged last Spring, brought similar suits against the L. & N. here, we believe they would now be gaining damage suits as Paint Lick citizens are doing. Backwardness in contending for our rights frequently costs us dearly in dollars and cents.

Who Knows?

The Constitution provides that not more than two Constitutional amendments can be voted on at one time. The reason why the lower House of the General Assembly deferred action on the convict labor amendment was to allow the Senate to pass with them the State-wide prohibition amendment. It was a conceded fact that the tax amendment must be passed in both Houses, and either the convict labor amendment or the State-wide provision sacrificed. The House preferred the loss of the convict labor amendment, but the Senate forced their measure through at the last moments, defeating the State-wide amendment. Who also knows but what the loss of the amendments by neglect to have them properly advertised 90 days was a scheme of the whiskey interests in the legislation.

Our Statement Demonstrated.

A few weeks ago we said the Senate should be abolished because it always killed so many good bills passed by the lower house, and that is just what they have done this time. At the last hour the Senate killed the anti-pass bill; the Red light bill; the Finn railroad bill and the bill placing the express companies under the control of the Railroad Road Commission, all good bills having passed the lower house. They did it by pretending to be giving due and special consideration to the tax bill and then killed it at the last moment. Away with the Senate and increase the membership of the House so the interests will have a harder time in buying up the controlling stock.

John McPherson has sold his small farm near this city to John Oomer for $600.00 and has bought Will Burgher's property in this city and will move to town again. Mr. Burgher will move to his farm near Spout Spring.

We are selling the new Royal Sewing Machine, prices from $20.00 up. 10 year guaranty.

Mrs. J. W. Williams.

Receiving Congratulations.

The Madisonian congratulates itself and the Clay City Times, that it, as well as the Times, stood out strongly in a demand for a reduction of railroad fare from three to two cents per mile. We contended all the time that the railroads could make this reduction and still make a reasonable profit on their passenger traffic. It is gratifying to know that the L. & N. has voluntarily reduced its rates from three to two and one-half cents, thus clearly showing that we were right in our contention. Of course this reduction is made for the purpose of fore-stalling the Legislature, and with a view to prevent the passage of the two cent law. Thus the Legislature should not permit to be done, but it should go steadily on and put on the statute books a two cent rate. It will save annually to the people of the State a million dollars approximately.

Again, we congratulate our selves that we stood out boldly for the rights of our people. We shall continue to do so, although we may incur the displeasure of the powers that be both local and elsewhere.—Richmond Madisonian.

Cole Mahone Suicides.

Cole Mahone, aged 38, committed suicide at his home near Winchester Monday evening between 2 and 4 o'clock, by blowing his brains out with a shot gun. Mr. Mahone had been in very poor health for several months. With locomotor ataxia and suffered a great deal. This was the sole cause for his rash act.

He is survived by his wife, who was before marriage, Miss Lizzie Lisle, an 8-year-old daughter, and four sisters. He will be remembered as the son of Wm. Mahone, who, with his family, moved from this county to Clark county several years ago. Mr. Mahone frequently visited friends in his old county where he was favorably known in his boyhood days.

Now, Who is it Behind?

The railroads of this State have voluntarily lowered the passenger rates, and the General Assembly is again caught napping. Democratic rule is always behind the times when it comes to action.—Irvine Sun.

Will some one tell us, please, what the Republican papers and Republican Representatives have done for the 2 cent bill, and we will tell them that the Sun's Republican Representative, Cash Gum, voted against the measure and the Sun helped to elect him over John W. Tuttle, Democrat, who had announced that he was for a 2 cent bill, and would vote for it if elected. Come again please.

Seven Inches of Snow.

Thursday night a 7 inch snow fell which is the deepest snow of the winter. The ground hog winter, after being so very proficient, should not now finger in the lap of Spring when every body is longing for a rest from such rough weather. Trappers and hunters are declaring vengeance against Mr. ground-hog when Spring does come and he again emerges from his den, and some are agitating a complete annihilation of his hogship, all for his dealing us such rough weather.

The Compliments Us.

The Winchester Sun pays the editor of the Times a compliment when it says we were the instigator of the prosecution of the L. & N. road which causes them to pay $200 in the Powell Circuit Court this week.

The story of the case is this. The road is declared to be the property of the L. & E. railroad, while the L. & N. operates it. To do so there is some form of contract or lease privileges existing between the two. The law provides that such lease or contract be recorded in each county through which the road runs and with the secretary of State at Frankfort. This has not been done in Powell nor has not been done in Clark. The writer did suggest their indictment in this county for this one or many violations of law here. The public mind knows what the owners are, but we are to find out in the trial, for the company was careful to have no more than a single witness. They should be indicted and fined in every county and at Frankfort as the law provides, but it is not being done. This is another case where the L. & N. is stronger than the law.

Not Worry.

The financiers of the State are getting a little worried over the fact that so many fire insurance policies are being cancelled. There are but few fires. The fires are brought about by the insurance carried. While there are many honest fires, there are many very dishonest ones. If the insurance concerns would only insure for two-thirds the assessed value of property, instead of insuring for four-thirds its cost value, they would find the losses in the State would soon justify the reduction in rates this State requires. It is not right that honest people who insure should pay the losses of some dishonest creatures who burn out their business instead of selling it out because it brings in more money that way.

State Aid Squeezes Through.

The State aid bill is one good measure to squeeze through the Senate in its last days. We have not read it yet, but are sure it is O. K. To get full benefits from the law Powell county must act quickly, for the law may be repealed by the next session of the Legislature. If we can only get two years aid from the State this will help a great deal, and we can get that if we hustle, and we must hustle.

Our Senator Makes Good.

The people of this Senatorial district may well be proud of their State Senator, W. F. Welch. The Times followed his voting all the way through the retiring Legislature and found him to vote right on all questions. We are convinced that some men can be good Democrats and Republicans at the same time.

I now have my dressmaking shop open next door to Central Hotel. Call and give me a trial. Satisfaction guaranteed, both in fitting and the price. Miss Nora Mays.

STANTON NEWS.

Mr. Morgan Lyle is in Winchester this week on business.

Mrs. W. L. Collins has gone to Richmond to visit her aged father who is in feeble health.

Mr. Ross Hall and family are in Mt. Sterling this week visiting with his brother Ab Hall and family.

Mr. Burnam Skidmore, J. D. Atkinson and O. C. Atkinson were in Lexington last week on business.

Mr. J. D. Centers and Miss Maggie Peck, of Morris Creek, were married one day last week by Rev. W. W. Strickland.

Mr. Algin Derickson, of Hampton in Breathitt county, was here this week visiting with his brothers on the mountain.

Miss Anna Hardwick went to Winchester Saturday and spent several days with her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hardwick and family.

Miss Marie and Daisy Johnson were called home to Tallega Saturday by the dangerous illness of their brother, John Johnson, who is sick with pneumonia fever.

Mr. J. S. Eads has moved his store building next to his house to the back of the other street (near the Christian Church). It is a very convenient place for Mr. Eads' place.

Mrs. Stella Groom and her husband went to L. & E. Junction Saturday. It is understood that Mr. Groom is going to return to his post in the Army and will take his wife with him.

Mrs. Lucy Jackson went to Winchester to attend the funeral of her brother, W. O. B. Donaldson, who died very suddenly last week. Mrs. J. D. Atkinson also attended the funeral from here.

Mr. John Creed and John (Hugley) Hardwick left Monday for Mt. Sterling. Mr. Hardwick is going to work on the farm that Judge J. H. Hardwick, of Winchester, recently purchased.

Mr. Williams, a newspaper agent for the Louisville, Herald was in our town last week and secured a number of subscribers for the paper. Charley Crowe will be the one to deliver the paper.

Circuit Court is in session this week. A great crowd was present on the opening day. Judge Benton gave strong instructions to the Grand Jury especially as to whiskey, pistols and vote buying and selling.

The Moore Comedy Company showed three nights last week to good crowds at the Court House. Some of their feats were short of wonderful to the spectator who did not understand how they were done.

Misses Esther Broad and McDill and Prof. J. C. Hanley, of Stanton College, were in Lexington and while there called on Prof. Buck who is sick with typhoid fever. They report that he is much better and will be able to leave before many days if he has no setback.

Miss Lillie Knox, daughter of Dr. A. T. Knox, and who has been attending the State Normal at Richmond, was taken suddenly sick with an attack of appendicitis. Dr. Knox went to Richmond and she was able to come home with him Saturday. She was in Stanton Monday but still weak from her sickness.

We regret that the offering for foreign missions was not larger last Sunday at the Christian Church Sunday School. We are afraid that the show held the week before took most of the money from the town and perhaps some that ought to have gone for the evangelization of the world.

It was a great disappointment that Dan W. Stone did not get here last week to hold the institute as announced. He sent a telegram saying that his child was very sick and could not come but that he would be here this coming Saturday and Sunday to hold the Sunday School Institute. We trust that everybody interested in Sunday school work will be present at the meetings. Everybody is invited.

In the case of Myrtle Hatton against Calvin Rannals the jury brought in a verdict of not guilty. Dr. Calvin Knox was dismissed on the charge of selling liquor to John Crabtree, Alfred Waters, Ben Fucker and Thornton Baker were found guilty and fined for gambling. Willie Hatton was fined for disturbing Sunday school at Mt. Canaan. Tommy McIntosh was fined for disturbing the peace on Rally Day last October. We do not understand why Mr. McIntosh had to stand this fine alone as there were others concerned in this disgraceful affair. It seems that Tommy has been made the scapegoat for the whole thing, which is not fair. W. G. Frazier and H. T. Derickson were found not guilty for using liquor on election day. This was not from a lack of evidence but from a lack of two witnesses. The case of John Clair for the killing of Bummer Spicer in Breathitt county comes up for trial today (Wednesday.) Several of the witnesses are here for the trial.

We are glad Judge Benton called attention to the clean court house when he opened up court the first day. There was a decided improvement over past conditions. There was no paper scattered about, and the floor had been swept, and the linoleum looked as if it had been washed. There was no rubbish around the court house yard, and there was an absence of whiskey bottles. We wished that Judge Benton had gone one step further when he called attention to the fact that there were spittoons scattered around for the men to use. If he would assess a fine of $5 for every man spitting on the floor, then he would be carrying out the law. There are two signs to that effect hung up in the court house. It is a fine to spit on the floor of a train, or on the walks of any of our large cities and even smaller ones. Surely human life is worth as much here in Stanton as any other place. And as doctors tell us that spitting on the floor or sidewalks is a dangerous practice, and we wish that a stop could be put to it. And this fine ought to be put to those who spit on the floors in the stores, or any public place.

Governor Beckham's opening speech at Elizabethtown Monday was well received, and he created quite a good impression upon his hearers, who, of course, in the main, were Beckham supporters before they went to hear him. He scored his opponent, Owsley Stanley, very viciously. His remarks being upon his connection with the L. & N. Railroad convinced us more conclusively that he is a close friend of the railroads and wants to be fair with the people too. The good Book teaches us that we cannot serve two masters, and if it were necessary for Governor Beckham to once enter the employ of his admitted foe to gain a living for his family, he might again find the same necessity facing him. The people do not need that kind of a man at Washington to represent them.

The Times has nothing to say about Mr. Beckham representing the L. C. or any other railroad except the L. & N. nor would we hold this against him but for the part taken by this man in the Goebel murder. Beckham in serving the L. & N. under these circumstances could only do so at a great sacrifice of honor and principle. If Mr. Beckham's ability as a lawyer is so poor that he can not get practice enough to support his family without taking fees from one of his dead comrades' alleged murderers, it is only for U. S. Senators seems not less than a year, which is the Governor's age.

him, is a very small salary, which leads one to believe that the railroad regards the Governor as cheap counsel.

Anyone reading the Courier-Journal would think if State-wide prohibition finally carries in Kentucky, the banks will go out of business as a consequence. The paper quotes figures to show that of the thirty-seven millions of capital in the banks of the State, thirty millions of this money is loaned on whiskey, implying that the banks would have no place to loan their money if the State went dry.

That is just where the advantage of State-wide prohibition will come. A good deal of the money now spent in liquor will be placed in savings banks, and this, together with the banks' capital, can be loaned out to farmers and workers in other business enterprises instead of on liquor that does no good, and we believe there will be better than direct surplus dollars in the whole business.

After all the legislature's short-comings, it has been well worth its cost, and should have been so if no other bills but the Insurance and the Life Aid bills had passed.

BAYARD ROGERS. Francis Charles, Auct.

Rev. Leander O. Ar, of Whick, Breathitt county, spent Sunday night with Dr. A. J. Lowe.

Mesdames Effie, Well and Alvin Martin visited Mrs. J. M. Conlee Tuesday afternoon.

There have been several tobacco beds sowed in this locality, which is a very good sign that the market will be good this fall.

J. B. Norton and J. R. Wymore were in Middlesboro Monday to attend Joe's street. On their way back they lost a span of mules tied together near Black creek.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Lowe were at Sunday School at the Christian church at Stanton Sunday morning, attending services at Presbyterian church and took dinner with Mr. and James Martin, Jr.

W. M. Allen and son, Reck, came in from Cleveland, Tenn., where they have been employed at a saw mill. We regret this family leaves Powell county, and they will be missed as citizens, neighbors, as business people, and in the church.

The fourth Sunday is Rev. Judge Mann's at the Methodist church. To every one is cordially invited to come out and hear this brother expound the gospel. We hope this notice will reach you in time so you may think more about church services. Let us spread the news broadcast to every one we meet and try to fill the house on this day.

Gray's Branch.

Cain Brisco and David Landsaw went to Stanton Monday to Court.

The Company boarding house has changed hands, Breck Brewer being now in charge.

David Landsaw was hurt but not seriously one day last week by a log they were hauling.

Frank Watson, of Nada, was over on business one day last week, stopping with us a few hours.

H. G. Crahire, of Clay City, our merchant, was in the grand jury.

Mrs. Ans. . . . the family of . . . Levi Hale, out up . . . Sunday and Sunday.

Another little tide came down and passed on, carrying a few logs to the boom below. There was hardly water for a good run.

Andrew Brewer and family, from Chimney Top, moved into camp Sunday. Mr. Brewer is now the foreman of the tramroad haulers.

Ewing Whitaker moved Monday over to the Menefee side of the river, to the Dana camp. He is working for the Dana people, now.

George Hon was at Clay City the other day on business with the Company. He reports arrangements there to put in a new band saw.

Ballinger Ledford, who has made a good hand here for many months, left for good on the 13, going out to begin work on his farm.

Dr. Knox, of . . . over Friday on his regular visitation, looking after the health of the folks within this section of his bailiwick.

Dewey, little son of Cain Brisco, has not been out for a week or so. He is on the sick list, being confined to his bed most of the time.

"Grandpa" Orth, the King, living at the Dana boarding house over the river, has been in quite feeble health for some time. He is about eighty-three.

F. S. Brown, our beloved manager, went to Camp Saturday afternoon. This is assumed to have been a business trip, as the other kind have little to always pulled up somewhere.

Tom Brown, who has been a foreman at this place for a long time and who has been in camp here since last fall, moved out Monday to his farm near Camp-ton. He will, however, continue to work here for a few months.

Sewing Machine Station, well known all around, struck it fully rich one day last week while on a business trip in here. Ewing Whitaker happened to be killing a fat little shod and seeing Hatton coming in, called for help. Hatton promptly rolled up his sleeves and pitched in. They soon had the pig nicely dressed, and Mrs. Whitaker, a queen among cooks, as soon had it cooked to a queen's taste—at least the best of it. Whitaker and Hatton then took charge at the table for the subsequent proceedings and in less than fifteen minutes the might-have-been expected was a too-much shipping fact: Hatton had foundered.

Farm Drain Tile

Make Your Wet Land Productive.

By the use of drain tile you can turn that low, wet, useless, swampy field into the most productive spot on your farm. Good tile, properly placed, not only carries off surplus water, it admits air to the soil and makes it easy to work. It improves any soil. The increase in the value of the land is many times the cost of the tile. The first year's crop from tiled land pays for it. Any body can do the work successfully. Write for particulars or call at our plant.

I was certainly in a dreadful state of health, when I finally decided to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I firmly
